

Seeing White-winged Guan, a Peruvian endemic

Miguel Lezama

White-winged Guan is a species close to the NBC's heart, being a beneficiary of Conservation Awards over the years. Here a top Peruvian birder suggests a good place to see one of his favourite birds.

1-3 White-winged Guan Penelope albipennis, Limón de Platanal, Piura, Peru (Miguel Lezama/Tanager Tours).
1 Pair, August 2019; 2-3 July 2016.
